

Jane's Signature Blooms

Halle Berry

The Oscar-winning actress (Jane's first celeb client after Oprah!) sent "Boxed-In Blooms" to every cast and crew member on her film Monster's Ball. "All the flowers — ranunculus flowers, allium, tea roses, hydrangea and hypericum berries — are all preselected," says Jane of the popular arrangement ($99-$230). "And if anything special is requested, we can include it, like a specific food or candy."

Elton's Bag of Daisies

Michael Douglas & Catherine Zeta-Jones

The Oscar-winning acting couple bought the "Gerbera Handbag" (a seersucker bag filled with mini gerbera daisies), $125, for their friend Elton John.

Jane's Hot Tips

- STAY SEASONAL "In summer, try fresh lavender," says Jane (lilies, hydrangeas, orchids, sweet peas and zinnias are also blooming this time of year). "In the spring, it's peonies."
- STAY IN THE SHADE. To keep flowers fresh, "never put them in direct sunlight," says Jane, adding that placing flowers in the refrigerator at night will extend their life for four to five days!
- THINK DIFFERENT "Get creative with containers," says Jane. "We use handbags sometimes (with built-in vases). For a man, try a pencil box: Get green foam, soak it with water and then fill it up with cut flowers."

Celine sings the praises of sweet peas

Celine Dion

The French-Canadian crooner is fond of Jane's "By the Bunch" designs, which are made up of flowers (like sweet peas, above) that are tied together with fresh foliage ($44-$225).
